

“Sorry mom.”

It's okay to feel sorry for yourself. Because you really messed up. Big time.

The car can be fixed, but with your license revoked, you can't drive it anyway. . .at least for a couple years. But then again, it could have been much worse. Someone could have been maimed or killed.

Alcohol. The leading cause of death for drivers under 21.
For more information, visit www.DontBeSorry.org